

Hamilton County Master Gardeners Presents-

FOCUS ON DESIGN

Grab a friend and join us for a relaxing day with good food, some shopping and great company, as you learn more about designing your garden. Info for the advanced or beginning gardener.

Saturday, August 4th at the Hamilton County 4H Fairgrounds
Registration Begins at 8:15, First Speaker at 9:00

Keynote Speaker—Rick Darke, Using Grasses in Modern Landscapes

Rick is an award winning author and landscape design consultant. Previous publications include 'The American Woodland Garden and 'The Encyclopedia of Grasses for Livable Landscapes'

Coordinating Native Plants in Home Gardens - Colletta Kosiba

Founding member of INPAWS, winner of the 2007 Honeywell Award

Integrating Hostas into the Garden - Cynthia Wilhoite

Regional Hosta Expert and owner of Soules Gardens

'Building the Bones', Trees and Shrubs in your Design - Randy Sorrell

President, SURROUNDINGS BY NatureWorks+; 'Outdoors' columnist

Registration Fee is only $30, due by July 28th

Continental Breakfast and Lunch Included

Seminar qualifies for 5 Advanced Master Gardener Hours and is open to the public - bring a friend!

Registration Form, (Please cut and include with your fee)

Name _____ Phone _____

Street _____ City _____ State _____

Email _____ County _____

Make check to HCMGA and mail to : HCMGA, 2003 East Pleasant St., Noblesville, IN 46060

For More Information Call : 317 776-0854 or Go To: hcmga.org