

What's New in 2003?

Highlights of Changes in This Edition

NEW AND REVISED SECTIONS

- Organic Vegetable Production
-

VARIETIES

- Brussels Sprouts: Prince Marvel, Oliver, Dasher
 - Muskmelon: Minerva
 - Pumpkins: Pik-a-Pie, Neon, Gold Bullion, Aladdin
 - Squash: Bush Delicata
 - Peppers: Brigadier, X3R Red Knight
 - Tomatoes: Sunchief, Fabulous, Red Sun
 - Zucchini: Independence III
-

DISEASE MANAGEMENT

- Expanded label for Quadris; see root crops and pepper.
 - Cabrio EG, a new fungicide labeled for use on several crops including cucurbits, root crops, peppers, tomatoes and onions.
 - Headline, a new fungicide labeled for use on dry beans and potatoes.
 - Procure 50 WS is a new systemic fungicide for powdery mildew management on cucurbits.
 - Gavel 75 DF has an expanded label. See cucurbits, potato and tomato.
 - Several chlorothalonil formations are listed for use on asparagus.
-

WEED MANAGEMENT

- Bladex (cyanazine) may no longer be used.
 - Clarity (dicamba) listed for postemergence broadleaf control in asparagus.
 - Matrix (rimsulfuron) listed for postemergence use in tomatoes.
 - Raptor (imazamox) listed for use postemergence on peas (selected states) and dry beans.
 - Strategy (clomazone and curbit) listed to control annual grasses and some broadleaf weeds in cucumber, pumpkin, squash and melons.
 - Select (clethodim) label for postemergence grass control expanded to include root crops, cole crops, greens, mint and rhubarb.
-

INSECT MANAGEMENT

- Intrepid (methoxyfenozide) is an insect growth regulator now labeled for caterpillar control on fruiting vegetables, leafy vegetables, and sweet corn.
 - Fulfill (pymetrozine) has an expanded label for aphid control on many crops.
 - Assail (acetamiprid) is a new neonicotinoid insecticide labeled for use on many crops.
-